Cookie Jar Game

Issued July 2004

- Equipment: Construction paper cut in the shape of cookies (one for each player), a non-breakable cookie jar, animal crackers
- How to Play: Give each player a cut-out cookie with a number written on it.
There should be a different number on each cookie.
Have the group sit in a circle and place the cookie jar in the centre. Call out two numbers (e.g. cookie #1 and cookie #7) and the Joeys with those cookie numbers must run around the circle, through their own sitting places and to the cookie jar.
They may each take an animal cracker and return to their seat to eat it.
The game continues until everyone has received a cookie.
