

New South Wales Branch
Hunter & Coastal Region

Double Trouble

Issued July 2004

Equipment: None

How to Play: The colony should stand in a circle holding hands, except for two "lost" Joeys who stand outside of the circle holding hands.
The pair outside of the circle, wander around looking for a place to rest.
Whenever they decide they like a spot, they can break two peoples hands apart.
The lost pair must then start running around the circle, and the broken pair must join hands again and run around in the other direction.
These two pairs race to see who will make it back first to fill the space in the circle.
The pair that is left outside is now "lost", and goes wandering around looking for a new spot.
