The Wood Cutters Game

Issued Nov 2005

Equipment Needed: Nil

To Play:

Select one Joey Scout to be the woodcutter the rest of the Mob are the trees.

On the command go, the trees run around designated playing area.

The Woodcutter gives chase to the trees, if tapped by the woodcutter the trees then become a woodcutter and try to catch other trees.

The Leader should stop the game at frequent intervals by calling Freeze to check if there are any trees left.

Eventually there will be no trees left.

This game is a simple way of showing the Joeys if we cut down our entire forest, our World would end up tree less.
