General Comments

Coming in Activity:
 Colour the Promise and Law charts, take home to hang on the wall. Note: If the Joey Scouts do not finish before the Mob meeting commencement they can complete the colouring in at home. Opening Parade should not be delayed.

Game – Getting to Know You.

Need: Balloons.

The Joey Scouts stand in a circle. A leader is in the centre with a balloon, keeping it off the ground by patting it into the air. When the leader calls out a Joey scout's name, that Joey steps into the middle and continues to keep the balloon from touching the floor. The Joey then calls another Joey Scout to take over the balloon. Continue until all the Joey Scouts have had a turn. If the balloon touches the floor the leader restarts the game.

Talk – Rules

Have the Joeys sit in a circle. Discuss the rules at your hall. Ask the Joey Scouts to make rules for their meetings. Ask all the Joey Scouts to agree on the rules, Place the rules on a sheet of cardboard and pin them up on the wall. You may like to ask the Joey Scout what activities they would like to do while in Joey Scouts.

Game – Balloon Ladder

Divide Joey Scouts into two teams, each team sitting on the floor with feet touching the opposite teams. Their legs form the ladder. A leader bats a balloon between the lines and the Joey Scouts try to bat the ball over the heads of the opposite team. The Joey Scouts must remain seated. A point is scored each time the balloon touches the ground behind the opposite team. More balloons can be added.

Game - Circle Ball

The Joey Scouts sit in circle, one holding the ball. The child passes the ball to the left or right. The child then has to run around the outside of the circle and back to the vacant place before the ball can be passed round the circle. The ball starts again from where it stops when the runner sits down. If the ball gets to the empty space first, the Joey Scout to whom the ball was first passed starts the ball again.

Activity – Promise, Law & HOP collage

PROMISE

I promise to do my best
Love my God
And be helpful.

LAW

A Joey Scout cares
A Joey Scout shares

HOP

Help Other People

Have the Joey Scouts cut out pictures from magazines/newspapers, which represent the Joey Scout promise, law & theme and glue onto a large sheet of paper to make a collage.
Hang up for other sections, etc to see. (For large groups split into two groups).

Game – N,E,S,W with Joey Scout promise.

Make the four walls of the hall North, South, East and West. When a leader calls north, all the Joeys run to that wall, south they run to that wall and so on. When the leader says:

I Promise – make the Scout sign.

Do My Best – Salute.

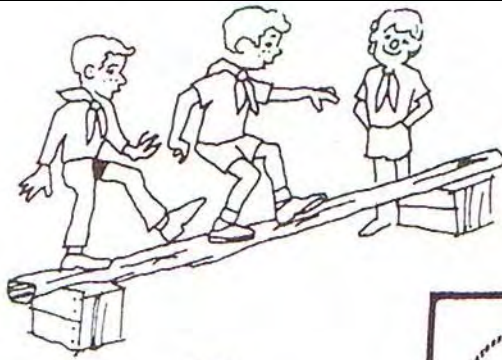

Love My God – Place hand on heart.

Be helpful – Joeys get into pairs and link arms.

Game – Law and Promise Jigsaw Relay

Write the Law and Promise on large sheets of cardboard twice, Cut them up to make jigsaws.

Place the Joey Scouts in two teams. Place the jigsaw pieces at one end of the hall. On go The first member of the team runs up takes a piece of the jigsaw and runs back to their team and places the piece near their team. The Joey Scouts continue until they have all the pieces needed to make up the jigsaw. While team members are getting the pieces have the rest of the team put together the puzzle. Helpful hint have a parent or leader assist each team to put them together.
