General Comments
* Hang a pretend letter (written in old fashion fancy writing on crumpled paper then painted with a teabag) from Robin Hood telling the joeys they may join his band of Merry Men if they complete some tasks. * Read or tell a simple story about Robin Hood. * Aiming Tasks Tell joeys Robin Hood had to have great aim. Have various activities where joeys have to aim. eg bean bags into a container, magnetic dart game, roll a tennis ball at skittles or a toy bow and arrow set. * Riding Tasks Robin Hood also had to be an experienced horse rider. Have various brooms and mops for joeys to ride as horses. Set up an obstacle course or leader to call out pretend obstacles as joeys go around eg low branch, mud, fallen branch. * Observation Task Hide and Seek Sheet Sally must find the joeys that are hiding in the forest.

Song Robin Hood's Band

His home is Sherwood Forest
He lives outside the law
He takes money from the rich
And gives it to the poor.

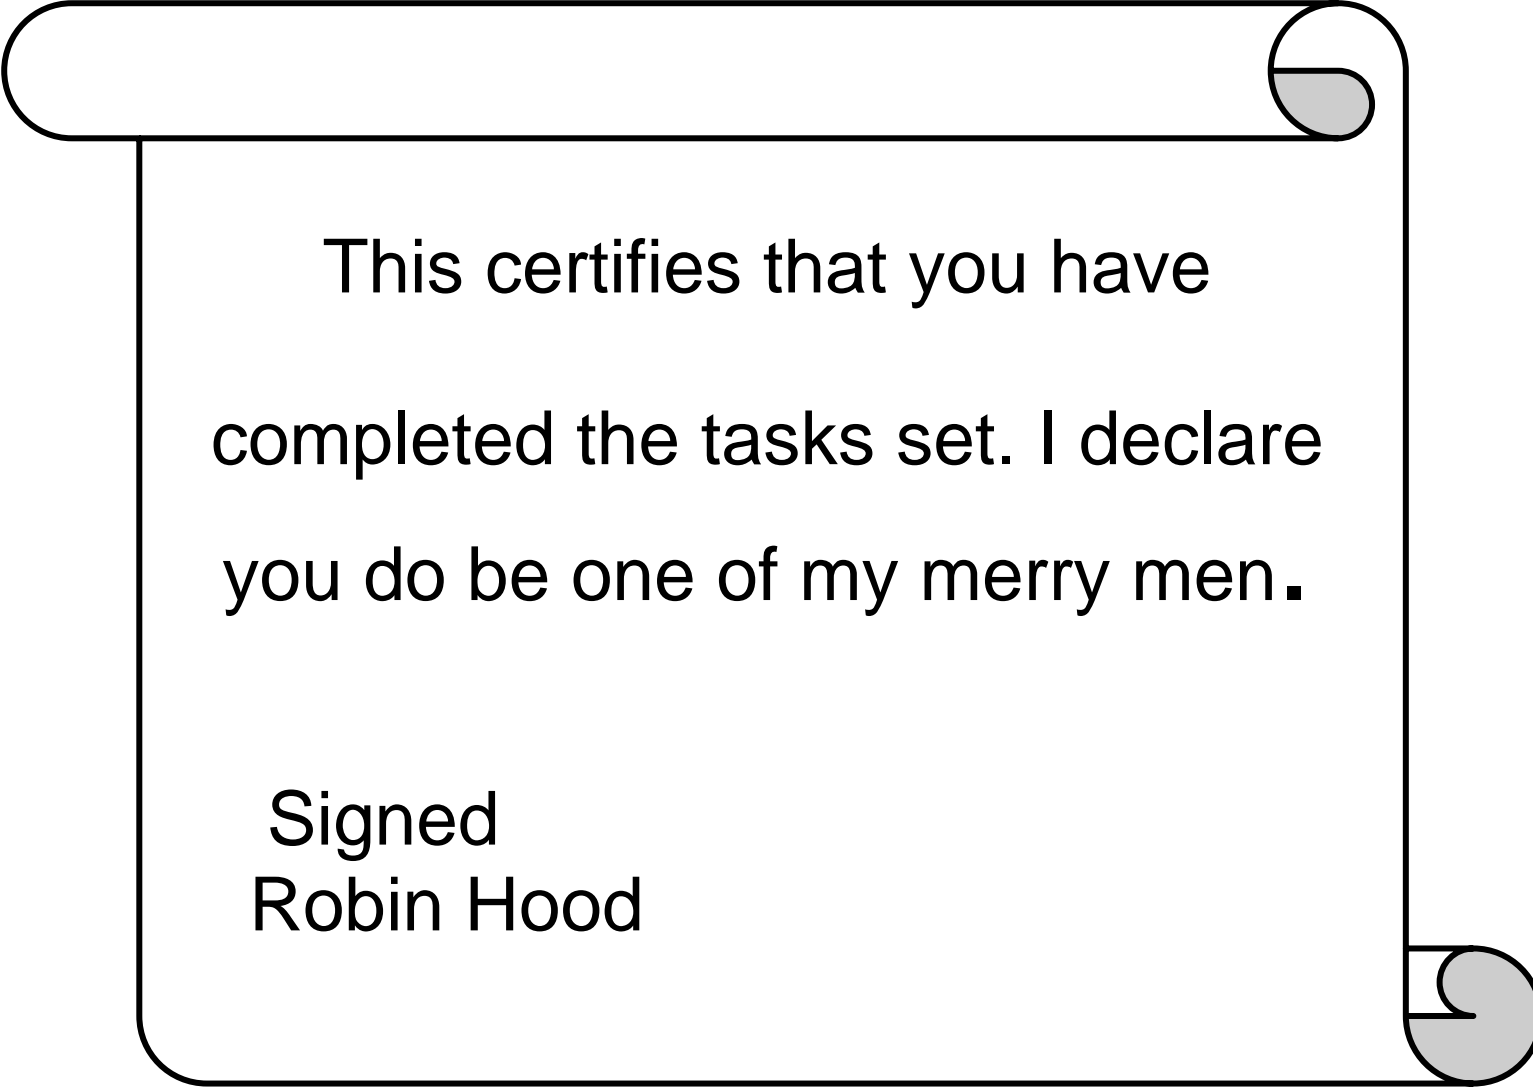

He always tricks the Sheriff
His arrows never stray
Listen to his Merry Men
For this is what they say.

Robin Hood, Robin Hood
The boldest in the land
Robin Hood, Robin Hood
And we are in his band.

 Certificate

On completion of the tasks the leader may proclaim the joeys as Merry Men and part of Robin Hood's Band.

Joeys are given a certificate. They draw a picture of themselves then stick on a green, paper folded hat with a paper feather in it.

This certifies that you have completed the tasks set. I declare you do be one of my merry men.

Signed
Robin Hood
